Credit Recovery

EXPERIENCE

Every student deserves the best possible chance to succeed. With PLATO Learning credit recovery solutions, you can make sure that your at-risk students have targeted online curriculum that will help them achieve their goals.

PLATO Credit Recovery Solutions

For many at-risk learners, regaining the educational ground they've lost can seem like an overwhelming task. PLATO Learning addresses those concerns with an online experience that is filled with rich media, graphics, video, and interactivity; making credit recovery attainable and engaging.

Solutions overview

PLATO Learning is an industry expert in proven, effective credit recovery solutions. By focusing on curriculum that fills learners' knowledge gaps and providing them with personalized learning experiences, PLATO targets the specific obstacles that have prevented learners from moving forward. For example, exemptive pretests enable learners to demonstrate mastery of previously learned concepts and to focus just on the content they still need to learn.

Our innovative, relevant, and engaging online credit recovery programs provide learners a needed alternative to learn and be challenged by rigorous full-semester courses based on standards and national best practices. And our comprehensive and flexible real-time reporting tools ensure that you can accurately monitor student and class progress and guide instruction accordingly.

Technology-driven, standards-based online curriculum provides a rigorous program delivered to students for anytime, anywhere access. PLATO Learning has over 200 courses with more 10,000 of hours of content in language arts, mathematics, science, social studies and electives. The depth of research and the breadth of scope of PLATO courses can help you create a credit recovery program that will make a real difference in the lives of your students.

PLATO Learning is a leading provider of high-value, comprehensive online solutions that support educators in their mission to successfully transition learners and advance learner achievement.
